Complaints Procedure

This complaints procedure is for members of the public using the counselling, college or resource centre, and those who work for the trust).

If you have a complaint relating to any aspect of the work of United Churches Healing Ministry, you should use the following procedure.

Procedure

First Stage – Informal Review

In the event of a complaint, United Churches Healing Ministry would always hope to deal with the issue informally, swiftly and sympathetically. Therefore, in the first instance you should speak to the CEO. If the issue cannot be resolved by this informal review, then a formal complaint will need to be made in writing to the Chair of the Trustees.

Second Stage – Written Formal Complaint

You may make a formal complaint in writing within three weeks of the incident to the Chair of the Trustees, setting out in full the grounds for, and the nature of, the complaint.

The Chair of the Trustees will convene a special Complaints Committee meeting within 28 working days. This will be chaired by the Chair of the Trustees and will also comprise two other members of the Trustees. If the complaint is against member/s of United Churches Healing Ministry, they will be invited to attend the meeting. You also may choose whether or not to attend the meeting.

All evidence should be made in writing, and will be circulated one week before the meeting.

The Committee can either reject or uphold the complaint. If the complaint is upheld, the Committee will decide on the appropriate action to be taken.

Appeal

If you are dissatisfied with the decision of the Complaints Committee an appeal should be made in writing to the Independent Participant Dr Alan Priest, DPsych, MA (Couns) MBACP UKCP Registered Psychotherapist, Birks Farmhouse, Slaithwaite, Huddersfield, West Yorkshire, HD7 5UZ. This appeal should be made within one week of the date of the Complaints Committee meeting if you attended this meeting, or within two weeks if you were informed of the outcome by post. It should set out in full the grounds for, and the nature of the appeal.

The Independent Participant will convene an Appeals Committee meeting within 28 working days. This will be chaired by the Independent Participant and will also comprise one member of the Trustees of United Churches Healing Ministry. If the complaint is against member/s of United Churches Healing Ministry, they will be invited to attend the meeting.

All evidence should be made in writing, and will be circulated two weeks before the meeting. You will be given in writing, at least one week's notice of the meeting and will have the right either to present your case to the Committee in person or to have the case decided on the basis of the written submission.

The decision of the Appeals Committee is final.

At any meeting concerning a complaint, a person of your choice may accompany you.
